Dear Friends,

The Camden County Board of Freeholders is sponsoring the ANNUAL SENIOR CITIZENS HEALTH AWARENESS FAIR on Wednesday, October 5, 2011 from 11:00 am to 2:00 pm at the Jack Curtis Stadium in Cooper River Park, Pennsauken. The fair will kick off our 2011 Flu Shot Program and also provides a wealth of information about issues impacting you. Government agencies from all levels will also be in attendance. Please consider joining us for this important day.

Seniors will receive a boxed lunch, sponsored through the Camden County Nutrition Project and served by Senior Citizens United Community Services (SCUCS). Please use the enclosed form to reserve tickets for this lunch. Each individual registering must provide their name, address and birth date, as applicants must be 60 years of age or older, and you must have a ticket to receive a lunch. Please send registration forms to:

The registration deadline is Wednesday, September 28, 2011. If you have any questions, comments or concerns please contact 1-866-CAMDENCOUNTY (1-866-226-3362). Group transportation will be provided through the cooperation of SCUCS at central pick-up locations to those municipalities that do not have their own vehicles. Groups needing transportation services should contact Diane Powell in writing no later than Wednesday September 28, 2011 at SCUCS, 146 Black Horse Pike, Mt. Ephraim, NJ 08059.

October 5 will be a fun-filled day of activities, with free entertainment, bingo and door prizes. I look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,
